Ans. 315, Model Town,
Kangra (H.P.)
Dear Prem,

You will be happy to know that I have made "gardening" as my hobby. I have grown a variety of flower plants in the open lawn of my house. When I am free, I go to the small flower garden and look to the tender plants there. I water them regularly to keep them fresh. I sit down in an easy chair near the flower plants and cast a joyful glance on them. They give food to my soul. I also enjoy the happy company of butterflies. The flowers add to the beauty of our house.

Write to me if you have any hobby, what is it and how you are enjoying?

Thanks

Yours Sincerely

Ved Prakash.

(2) An Accident that you Witnessed

Last Sunday we went to market to buy some vegetables. There was a big crowd inside and outside the vegetable market. Any how we bought the vegetables for a whole week. When we were coming back from the market, we saw an accident on the main road. A boy on bicycle was crossing the road. A car was coming fast. The driver tried to stop the car but he could not stop it. The car hit the bicycle. The boy fell down and injured seriously. Police came there soon. The car driver was arrested. The injured boy was immediately taken in an auto riksha to the hospital. He was admitted there for medical treatment. The doctor in charge told the patient in out of danger and he will be all right in two or three days. The boy's parents also came there. They remained there with their son. We came back home. Such accidents happen due to the ignorance of traffic rules. Every citizen should follow these rules honestly and sincerely.
